

지도교수상담제(PASS 프로그램) 운영 안내

Guidelines for PASS Program

* What is PASS Program?

PASS is the program to help students orient themselves to college life, plan the degree program, and achieve their academic and career goals by providing a range of advising resources.

1. For whom : All Enrolled GSIS Students

(* Except Exchange Students, Completed Students and Students on a leave of absence)

2. Counselor : Full-time Professors of GSIS

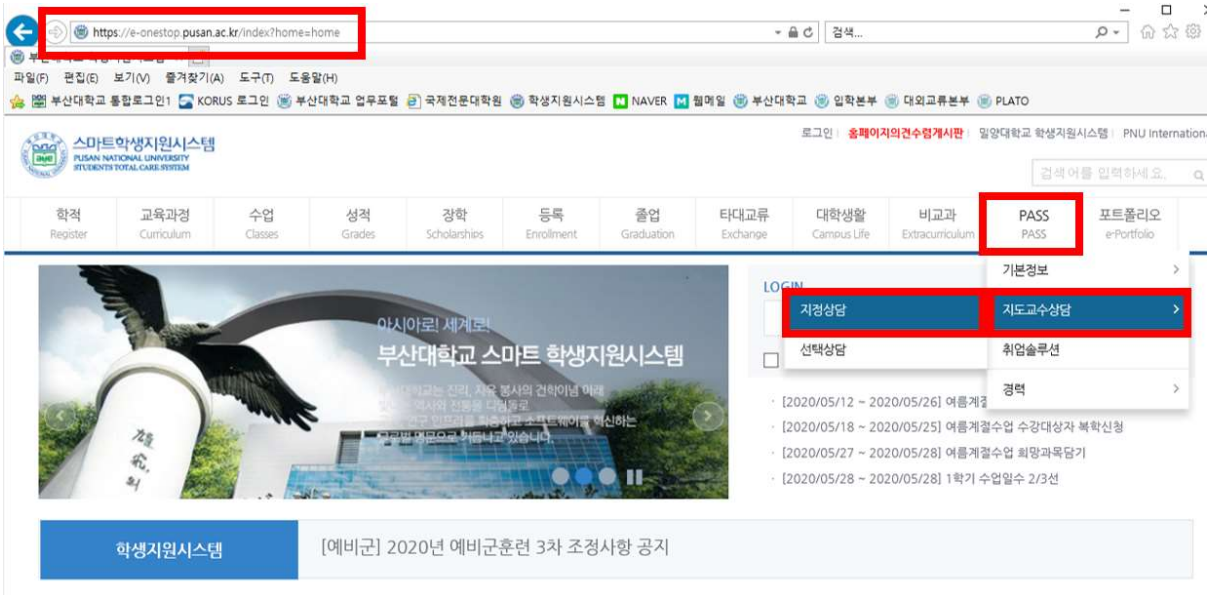

1) You can confirm your assigned counselling advisor from PASS menu in PNU website (e-onestop.pusan.ac.kr).

2) Counselling advisor is in charge of regular counseling with students in order to make you adapt to college life and build a personal career path. Thus, it can be differ from academic advisor who guides your research work.

3) Based on your major, counselling advisor will be assigned randomly. However, in case of assigning the academic advisor before, counselling advisor will be same with your academic advisor. Furthermore, incoming students can change your counselling advisor into the academic advisor after assigning your academic advisor from the 2nd semester, and if you ask to assign a certain professor as your counselling advisor, we can change on your request.

3. How to apply (상담신청 방법)

Step 1 : Visit 학생지원시스템(e-onestop.pusan.ac.kr) -> Click PASS -> Click 지정상담
